Articles and books

“Short Term Missions: Are they worth the Cost?” Jo Ann Van Engen (2000, first published in The Other Side) Great article about how to “turn religious tourism into genuine service,” including focus on learning, not doing, spending time with locals, support the local community with at least a tithe of what your trip cost, get involved when you get home.

Mission Trips That Matter: Embodied Faith for the Sake of the World, Don C. Richter (2008, Upper Room Books) – Thought-provoking reflections on why we are sent out, how we might approach the trip, helpful reflection resources.

Serving with Eyes Wide Open: Doing Short-Term Missions with Cultural Intelligence, David A. Livermore (2012, Baker Books)

Helping Without Hurting in Short-Term Missions: Leader’s Guide, Steve Corbett, Brian Fikkert with Katie Casselberry, (2014, Moody Publishers)
