Who Are You?

Whose are You?

I want to do a little exercise with you...

Find a pen and paper

or

Open a doc/tab to type

Write down 1-3 communities
you currently represent

Who are the most formative communities of your life?

Write down 1-3

What made you feel loved and welcomed in those communities?

What memories come to mind?

What are the Values
within and behind
that love and welcome?

Write down 1-3 Values

What roles do you play in community?

What archetypes?

Write down 3-5 roles

Back to Here...

Think about the 1-3 communities
you currently represent...

How can you bring...

these values

and

these roles

to these communities?

Take 2 minutes to jot down
what this could look like over distance.

How do we translate these values over distance?

We are invited to make intersections between

these values

these roles

and these communities.

Our calling is found within these.
