Who Are We?

- A picture book program that was created in 2018.
- Our books are intentionally multicultural in their artwork and characters.
- Books carry themes of diversity, inclusivity, kindness, compassion, self-esteem, and care for our world.
- Showcase a varied group of authors and illustrators, from debut talent to familiar names.
- You can find our books in libraries, schools, general bookstores, progressive church communities, and more!

Ideas on How to Use Picture Books

- Children's message/the children's moment in your church
- Basis for summer children's curriculum
- Sunday School/Summer Sunday School
- Youth retreats
- Worship bags
- Church preschools/nurseries
- Gift-giving
- Vacation Bible School (VBS)
- Intergenerational settings
- Workshops
- And more!

Additional Ideas in a COVID-19 World

Quick Overview of www.FlyawayBooks.com
