

PCR RESOURCE SHEET: “Eliminating Ministry Clutter: Practicing the Pruning Principle.”

Presenter: Rev. Dr. Michael Kurtz

Date: Thursday, August 13, 2020

-Michael Kurtz would welcome further communication concerning the webinar topic. You may reach Michael via email at

mkurtz@wnccumc.net

-Much of the webinar material is taken from Michael’s most recent book, “Mentoring Pew Sitters Into Servant Leaders: Developing Servant Leader Volunteers Through Mentoring”. Copies of this book are available from Plowpoint Press. The website for ordering books is www.plowpoint.org

-“Hero Maker,” Dave Ferguson, Warren Bird

-“Simple Church,” Thom Rainer, Eric Geiger

-“Deliberate Simplicity,” Dave Browning

-“Please Understand Me: Temperament Character Intelligence,” David Keirse

QUESTIONS FOR POLLING GROUP

Responses for questions:

-Never

-Seldom

-Frequently

-Always

1. Have you ever felt that your church offers too many programs?
2. You have done some family of origin “homework” to gain better understanding of your family’s levels of flexibility and closeness?
3. During the past 18 months (excluding the pandemic season) you have eliminated a ministry or program at your church?